KNOXVILLE, Aug. 22 .- The riot alarm was rung again in Knoxville today. Joseph Goodman, proprietor of a where the miners make their head-quarters, and Capt. W. L. Ledger Wood, captain of one of the companies coarding house on Hardee street, of Knoxville volunteers in the Coal Creek war, met at the postoffice about con and started into a discussion about the situation. Goodman roundly abused the citizens who had gone to the front, and this incensed Ledger Wood, who retaliated in kind. Col. Ledger Wood seeing Goodman was about to strike, but him and was in turn struck with a club. A fight followed in which both men fought fiercely, but neither was dangerously hurt before being separated. The news af the fight spread rapdly and before Goodman had reached Gay street several of the Knoxville volunteers were madly chasing him. They thought that Goodman was going back to his home to report to some miners who were stopping there. James Harris was at the head of the running crowd with a gun. caught Goodman at the corner of Gay and Vine streets and soon had him escorted by policemen to the city hall. The riot slarm had been sounded in the meantime.

Object Lessons This Week.

We Want Your Attention This August Morning.

> The store news at this time has more than a siren charm. The words are winsome to the home lover and the wise and prudet soul will mentally set them to economic music. Money saving means more things for grace and comfort, and that means happier homes.

> > "One of the hardest cartles for Sutan to overcome is the home where love is king."

Had we space we could introduce you to a vast area of bargains, but, like voyages taken on paper, do not satisfy as does the real experience. You must see them this week. Be an eye-witness and a participaters in the host of good things prepared for you.

BOARDING STABLE In the Dim Perspective.

Another season is dawning. New things will soon take the place of their predecessors. MANY HAVE ALREADY, Staples will follow staples, and novelties follow novelties. All this calls for a general preparation from us and a cleaning-up of everything in each department.

The China Silks

Must all go. There are a large number of Dress Patterns and quite a variety of pieces in which there is just enough for a silk waist. First come will get them at very low price.

A Still Greater Attraction.

Monday morning we inaugurate a general clearance sale of our

ENTIRE WASH DRESS GOODS STOCK

Including domestic and imported Ginghams, Satines, Silkalines, Madras Cloths, Bedford Cords and many dress lengths, cut way below first cost. The prices will furnish strong incentive to lay in a good supply at once. For particulars apply at the counters.

Wool Dress Goods Novelties

For early Fall are arriving daily, covering the choicest weaves in the old and new world. INSPECTION INVITED.

We have many fine remnants in this department left as a result of the season's cutting and slashing, which have been marked at a price. The little miss will find in some just enough for a gown, the adult ditto. Take this gentle hint.
